Community Donation Program

Our Philosophy

At Seward Co-op we strive to promote the health and sustainability of our community through several donation programs such as:

- Natural foods donations to the Brian Coyle Food Shelf.
- Educational information regarding nutritional issues for public schools through the Midwest Food Connection.
- Small financial or in-kind contributions to local groups each month.
- Ten cents back each time a customer uses his/her own shopping bag through our Green Bag program.
- Seward Co-op Community Fund Grant Program, which funds projects that coincide with the co-op's Ends.

Seward Co-op Grocery & Deli's Ends Statement

- Equitable economic relationships
- Positive environmental impacts
- Inclusive, socially responsible practices

Community Donation Program

Priority is given to sustainable agriculture and environmental programs.

Our donation preferences are given to nonprofits in the communities served by Seward Co-op in southeastern Minneapolis and western Saint Paul.

We offer gift certificates in the range of $25 to $50 for use at fundraisers, meetings or other one-time events. We do not provide actual food or deli trays

Our donation program does not subsidize partisan or religious organizations. Recipient organizations are eligible a maximum of twice per year.
